2020, Basic Books. Martha S. Jones, author. Purchase Online.Â The book uses two emblematic characters from Russian culture â€“ the firebird, symbol of the transcendent power of art in defiance of circumstance and the efforts of censors to contain creativity; and the fox, usually female and representing wit, cleverness and the agency of artists and everyone who triumphs over adversity â€“ to explore how Russian cultural life changed between 1850 and 1950.
