Canadians ties to these two key regions manifest themselves in different ways, however. Connections to Quebec are driven by visitation, not relationships As mentioned, almost seven-in-ten non-Quebecers express some personal affiliation with Quebec either because theyve visited (61% have), or used to live there (9%), or have friends or family there (19%). However, while Quebec and Ontario are equally likely to be a destination for out-of-province visitors, Canadians are considerably more likely to say they have close friends or family in Ontario (36% of nonOntarians do) than in Quebec (19% of n...Â Documents Similar To The ties that bind: Canadian connections across a vast country are strong.
