

The Colour of Home

By Mary Hoffman, Karin Littlewood

Frances Lincoln Publishers Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Colour of Home, Mary Hoffman, Karin Littlewood, Hassan feels out of place in a new cold, grey country. At school, he paints a picture showing his colourful Somalian home, covered with the harsh colours of war from which his family has fled. He tells his teacher about their voyage from Mogadishu to Mombasa, then to the refugee camp and on to England. But gradually things change. When Hassan's parents put up his next picture on the wall, Hassan notices the maroon prayer mat, a bright green cushion and his sister Naima's pink dress - the new colours of home.

According to Colour Psychology blue is the colour of the mind and is thought to stimulate mental activity, making it a great choice for offices and work spaces. Evocative of a clear blue sky or tranquil waters, blue also has a connotation with nature that adds to its serene appeal making it a great choice for any room in the home. Since S Interior Design is based in Phoenix, Arizona, the main source of blue in our landscape is found in the cloudless skies on about 345 days of the year. Warm and bright, this colour will make a statement wherever it is added in the home. It evokes the carefree vibe of the 60s and 70s, with muted tones helping to create a retro feel. Look for orange furniture to make a statement in any space from the living room to the kitchen.
