10 million copies of Hugh Johnson's pocket wine books have been sold and for good reason. Read more. Helpful. Comment Report abuse. rainy day woman. 5.0 out of 5 stars A Gift that's Sure to Please. December 15, 2009. The book covers an amazing number of wineries given its small size. Granted, each winery only gets a couple of lines, but the information it gives is straightforward and useful. The book is intelligently laid out. It is organized by country (and region, where needed). It also has indexing on the spine to delineate the country/region. I did a little bit of spot checking to compare the book's impressions of wineries with my own observations.
