X, 228 pages : 24 cm. Includes bibliographical references (pages 211-216). Prologue : not another church growth book -- Characteristic 1 : supernatural power -- Characteristic 2 : Christ-exalting worship -- Characteristic 3 : God-connecting prayer -- Characteristic 4 : servant leaders -- Characteristic 5 : kingdom family relationships -- Characteristic 6 : God-sized vision -- Characteristic 7 : passion for the lost -- Characteristic 8 : maturation of believers --. Epilogue : growth, a ten-step process. Here's seven characteristics of highly effective church leaders. And I think they are in part what makes each of them effective in their own realm. And there is absolutely nothing stopping you from adopting each of the characteristics in your own leadership starting today. Seven Surprising and Endearing Characteristics. So what do leaders like Andy Stanley, Jon Acuff, Jeff Henderson, Derwin Gray, Tony Morgan, Kara Powell, Casey Graham, Ron Edmondson and others have in common? Of course they're gifted speakers, writers, thinkers, strategists and more. But they also do the following seven things very, very well. These studies suggest more effective therapists score higher on Facilitative Interpersonal Skills, have the ability to develop a strong therapeutic alliance, effectively address patient avoidance, have a flexible and adjusted interpersonal style and have better Rogerian Skills. The findings are discussed, as well as the implications for selection, training and future research.
