This is important to US immigration history because it is essentially the same thing as nation by design. The idea that the US can create laws to favor one race and exclude others shows that the US based the nation on racial preferences. North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). They said that since Ozawa was not caucasian, he was not eligible to become a citizen. This is significant because it shows that despite living in the US for so long and being a positive contribution to society, Ozawa could still not be granted citizenship only because of his race. Race/Ethnicity-Based Design. this is obv. Racial nationalism.
