No matter how you pray or whom you pray to, it can be difficult to find time for prayer during busy times. One way to deal with this is to make prayer part of your daily routine, such as praying as soon as you wake up in the morning, right before you go to sleep, or before every meal. There is no wrong time to pray. Many people pray during emotional times, like when they feel sad, scared, or happy. You can pray at any time of day, and as much or as little as you feel is sufficient for your spiritual life. Learn How To Pray With The Lord's Prayer. The Lord's Prayer is the prayer that Jesus wants us to use as an example of a good prayer. Lets go over each line and examine the structure and meaning of this prayer. I pray in the morning in order to prepare myself for the day, and to help keep me on the right path throughout the day. Praying in the evening is better for reflecting on the day's events. If you can do both, great! And of course, it is common to pray before dinner. How Do You Pray? Join the conversation!
