People tend to view recommendations from those who have previously used the service as highly credible and are more inclined to use the recommended service. Referrals, however, do not always come easily. Most often, you have to ask for it. If one of your clients seem satisfied with your service, request him or her to refer your business to their friends or acquaintances who may benefit from your service.Â 1001 Ways to Market Your Services: Even If You Hate to Sell.
